The Pocket Cathedral is a collection of heart-searching prayers woven gently together by an illumined thread of hope. Carry it on your person to read anytime, anywhere and elevate an ordinary moment in your life as something special and sacred.

Farrell Mason is the author of Alma Gloria and the Olive Tree, The Angel and the Raven, and now her first collection of prayers, The Pocket Cathedral. In every piece of her writing there are threads of love, hope, healing and redemption. When you read her novels, prayers and spiritual meditations at her weekly blog, Bread and Honey (www.breadandhoneyblog.net), you come away soul-nourished and renewed in hope.
